

SIM Summit California Terms & Conditions

1. General Terms

By registering for or attending this event ("Event"), you ("Attendee") agree to abide by these Terms and Conditions, as well as any additional rules communicated by the Organizer before or during the Event. The Organizer reserves the right to update or modify these Terms at any time without prior notice.

2. Registration and Payment

Registration is confirmed only upon receipt of full payment.

All registration fees are non-refundable unless otherwise specified.

Substitutions of attendees may be made at any time by notifying the Organizer in writing.

The Organizer reserves the right to deny registration or entry to any individual for any reason deemed appropriate.

3. Event Conduct

All attendees are expected to behave professionally and respectfully toward speakers, staff, vendors, and fellow participants.

Harassment, discrimination, or disruptive behavior of any kind will not be tolerated and may result in immediate removal from the Event without refund.

4. Media Release

By attending this Event, you consent to be photographed, recorded, or filmed by the Organizer or its representatives.

These images and recordings may be used for marketing, promotional, or educational purposes in print or digital formats.

If you do not wish to appear in promotional materials, please notify the Organizer in writing before the Event.

5. Data Sharing and Privacy

By registering for the Event, you acknowledge and agree that your name, phone number, and email address may be shared with Event sponsors and vendors for business and networking purposes.

Vendors and sponsors may use this information to contact you following the Event regarding products, services, or offers related to the Event's subject matter.

The Organizer will not sell or distribute registration data to any non-affiliated third parties beyond the scope of this Event.

Attendees may request removal from any vendor or sponsor contact list directly with that vendor or sponsor in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

6. Vendor and Sponsor Terms

For vendors and sponsors participating in the Event:

Vendors will receive a copy of the registration list containing attendee names, phone numbers, and email addresses within [X] days after the Event.

Vendors agree to use this information solely for legitimate follow-up communications related to the Event and in compliance with all applicable privacy and anti-spam laws (e.g., CAN-SPAM Act, GDPR if applicable).

Vendors are prohibited from selling, transferring, or otherwise distributing attendee information to any third party.

Vendors must immediately remove any attendee from their contact list upon request.

7. Event Modifications and Cancellations

The Organizer reserves the right to modify, postpone, or cancel the Event for any reason, including but not limited to force majeure, public health concerns, or insufficient enrollment. In the event of cancellation, registrants will be notified as soon as possible and provided with applicable refund or credit options.

The Organizer will not be responsible for any additional costs incurred by attendees (e.g., travel, lodging).

8. Liability Waiver

By participating in the Event, attendees assume all risks associated with travel to, attendance at, and participation in Event activities.

The Organizer, venue, sponsors, and vendors shall not be held liable for any injury, loss, or damage to person or property arising from or related to participation in the Event.

9. Health and Safety

Attendees agree to comply with all health and safety policies in effect at the time of the Event, including those required by the venue, local health authorities, or the Organizer.

10. Governing Law

These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of [Insert State], without regard to its conflict of law principles. Any disputes arising under or related to these Terms shall be resolved in the courts of [Insert County, State].
